

CEF Success Story, FAIRway Danube: One of the most ambitious IT tool in IWT.

The focus of FAIRway Danube is to provide current and harmonised information about shallow sections, water levels and water level forecasts, marking the fairway based of available depths, by pilot operations of new harmonised services for waterway users, with involvement of stakeholders for validation of results by means of pilots. Please follow this link to discover more about the project!

